Tidewater Council welcomes Girls into Scouting

The 365 days from February 2018 to 2019 were arguably the most significant span since Scouting came to the United States in 1910.

The Boy Scouts of America made history on May 2 last year by unveiling the new “Scout Me In” campaign that features girls, as well as boys, ages 5-10 in our iconic Cub Scout program for the first time.

This change allowed all families to participate in Cub Scouts, a program renowned for character-building fun and adventure. Through adventures big and small, Scouting embraces the outdoors and helping our communities through service projects, STEM development, and building confidence through our full range of activities.

Locally, girls have been active since February 2018 as members of Cub Scout Pack 374 in Virginia Beach. As part of an early adopter program for Cub Scouts, Pack 374 established a Wolf (2nd grade) and Bear (3rd grade) Den for girls.

Families can now choose to sign up their sons and daughters for Cub Scouts. Each Cub Scout den (usually 4 to 8 youth) is single gender — all boys or all girls. These dens make up Cub Scout packs, which can include any combination of all-boy or all-girl dens. This unique approach allows the organization to maintain the integrity of the single-gender model while also meeting the needs of today’s families.

Girls must complete the same requirements as boys to advance through the Cub Scout ranks and are participating in the same events as the boys in Cub Scouting, including hikes, model rocket derby, carpentry, veterinarian for a day, camping and a host of other outdoor and civic service activities.

“For years, families in our community have seen how the program builds character and teaches children valuable skills and life lessons that prepare them for success,” said Bill Deany, Scout Executive. “The Cub Scout program is designed to make important life lessons — such as physical fitness, problem-solving and emotional growth — fun and memorable for children and families. We are thrilled to make this invaluable program available to boys and girls.”

When the girl Cub Scouts were asked, “What do you like about being in Cub Scouts?” the replies were varied: “Fun!” “Wildlife trips and getting to ride a horse,” “Earning my Whittling Chip and going camping,” “I want to be an Eagle Scout like my Dad,” and “I get to be an Eagle Scout like my brother.”

On February 1, 2019, the Boy Scouts of America (BSA) welcomed girls into its most iconic program thanks to the BSA’s historic decision to open the Boy Scout program to both boys and girls ages 11-17.

As we enter a new era for our organization, it is essential that all youth can see themselves in Scouting in every way possible. That is why Scouts BSA is the new name for the Boy Scout program. Scouts BSA perfectly represents the new, inclusive program for older Scouts that the Boy Scouts of America is proud to offer.

All teen and pre-teen girls now can join local troops in the new program, now known as Scouts BSA. While Scouts BSA welcomes both boys and girls, the units are not co-ed. Troops are single-gender and meet independently. Scouts – boys and girls – can work to earn the Eagle Scout rank. The organization name will continue to be Boy Scouts of America.

Eagle Scout receives Medal of Honor for leading perilous rescue attempt

By Bryan Wendell, Bryan on Scouting

All Scouts are brave. Some are called to risk their lives to save others.

Retired Master Chief Petty Officer Britt K. Slabinski, an Eagle Scout, belongs in the latter group.

On May 24, 2018, he received the Medal of Honor for his 2002 attempt to rescue a teammate during a 14-hour battle in the mountains of Afghanistan.

The Medal of Honor is the military's highest honor, and Slabinski is just the 12th living service member to receive it for actions in Afghanistan.

Slabinski earned Scouting's highest honor on March 9, 1984, as a member of Troop 109 of Northampton, Mass. Later, he served as an Assistant Scoutmaster with Troop 791 in Virginia Beach.

After graduating from high school, Slabinski enlisted in the U.S. Navy. He attended boot camp in Orlando, Fla., and fulfilled his lifelong dream of becoming a Navy SEAL in 1990.

Twelve years later, on March 4, 2002, Slabinski was in the snow-covered mountains of Afghanistan in the middle of a dangerous fight against al-Qaida. He and his team were ordered to establish an observation post atop Takur Ghar, a 10,000-foot mountain in southeastern Afghanistan. This position would give the U.S. a tactical advantage against al-Qaida forces.

After a series of delays, Slabinski and his team flew to the peak around 3 a.m. They realized, too late, that al-Qaida forces were already there. Slabinski's helicopter was hit with heavy fire, and Petty Officer First Class Neil Roberts fell out about 10 feet from the ground.

They could not retrieve Roberts before the helicopter crash landed.

This was Slabinski's loneliest moment. He was sitting in the chopper with a headset on and people were talking to him. He was thinking of all the tactical problems and the lives.

"And this thought kept coming back to me, and it's the first line of the Boy Scout Oath, 'On my honor, I will do my best,'" said Slabinski. "The only thing that is in the back of my mind is, 'On my honor I will do my best. On my honor I will do my best. On my honor I will do my best.' That's when I said, 'I'm gonna go do this.'"

Two hours later, Slabinski and his team boarded a new helicopter to what was later named Roberts Ridge. They would attempt to rescue Roberts — not yet realizing Roberts already had been killed. With bullets piercing his clothing, Slabinski charged into al-Qaida territory. He put his own life on the line to protect his heavily outnumbered team.

Over the next 14 hours, Slabinski carried a teammate down a sheer cliff face and through waist-deep snow. He did this while calling in strikes on enemies attacking from the surrounding ridges.

"He stabilized the casualties and continued the fight against the enemy until the mountaintop could be secured and his team was extracted," according to the official commendation. "His dedication, disregard for his own personal safety and tactical leadership make Master Chief Slabinski unquestionably deserving of this honor."

Slabinski has one son, Bryce, who also is an Eagle Scout. Listen to Britt Slabinski's story at <http://bit.ly/2JEG1VV>

Blue Heron Lodge 349

Order of the Arrow

Lodge has another banner year in 2018

By Zachary Grinvalsky, 2019 Blue Heron Lodge Chief

The Order of the Arrow's Blue Heron Lodge reports with pride that Seth Greiling was re-elected as Chief of our OA Section SR-7A, which serves all of Virginia and northeastern North Carolina, at the Section Conclave in April 2018.

This is the ninth year in a row that a Blue Heron Lodge youth member has been elected to a section office, and the eighth of the last nine that one has been elected as a Section Chief.

The Lodge inducted its 2019 Lodge Officers at its annual Holiday Banquet last December. Lodge Chief Zachary Grinvalsky will serve with Executive Vice Chief Timothy Zemienieuski, Vice Chief of Administration Reeves Yanez, Vice Chief of Operations Jacob Seeley, and Secretary/Treasurer Albert Mercado.

Also at the Holiday Banquet, youth member Stephen Greiling and adult member Albert Joynes were honored with the Order of the Arrow's Founder's Award, which recognizes Arrowmen who have given outstanding selfless service to our lodge.

The lodge also presented James E. West Fellowships endowment gifts in the names of youth member Anthony Peluso and adult member Erich Rötetz.

Lodge youth bestowed 14 Arrowmen with the Vigil Honor during the Fall Fellowship in October 2018. This recognition is the highest honor that the Order of the Arrow can bestow upon a member for service to their lodge, council, and Scouting.

Blue Heron Lodge earned an overall Journey to Excellence Gold Rating for the second consecutive year in 2018 with Gold Ratings in the following Journey to Excellence objectives:

- Conducted elections to membership candidacy at 100% of the units requesting them
- Averaged 144 members (25% of our membership) attending each of our four lodge events at Pipsico Scout Reservation
- Averaged 23 hours of service per member
- Completed several projects designated by the Scout Executive and Lodge Staff Advisor
- Conducted a Leadership Development Conference, training 100% of the Lodge Executive Committee

The Lodge earned Silver Ratings for inducting 79% of the youth candidates into the Order of the Arrow, and contributing an average of $16 per member to the council. It earned a Bronze Rating for converting 28% of the eligible Ordeal members to Brotherhood.

In August, Nick Cooper and his advisor, Jeff Warren, led 38 delegates to the National Order of the Arrow Conference at Indiana University in Bloomington, Indiana, accompanied by 14 staffers from our lodge. National Chief (and former Blue Heron Lodge Chief at the most previous NOAC) Anthony Peluso presided over the event.

Our 2018 Lodge Chief, Justin Chesnut, earned 2nd place overall in the NOAC competition for traditional American Indian dance.

Blue Heron Lodge is functioning smoothly and capably, and we will be successful in achieving our goals to our council and community, all while continuing our Journey to Excellence.

TIDEWATER COUNCIL BSA SALUTES THE EAGLE SCOUT CLASS OF 2018

Eagle Scout is the highest achievement or rank attainable in the Boy Scouting program of the Boy Scouts of America. The designation "Eagle Scout" was founded over 100 years ago. Only 4% of Boy Scouts are granted this rank after a lengthy review process. The requirements necessary to achieve this rank take years to fulfill. The Eagle Scout rank has been earned by almost 2.5 million young men.

Requirements include earning at least 21 merit badges. The Eagle Scout must demonstrate Scout Spirit, an ideal attitude based upon the Scout Oath and Law, service, and leadership. This includes a large leadership service project that he plans, organizes, leads, and manages.

Eagle Scouts are presented with a medal and a badge that visibly recognizes the accomplishment. Additional recognition can be earned through Eagle Palms, awarded for completing additional tenure, leadership, and merit badge requirements.

THE SILVER BEAVER AWARD

As a movement whose leadership is overwhelmingly volunteer, the Boy Scouts of America recognizes the need to acknowledge the invaluable service that men and women render to youth.

The Silver Beaver is the highest honor that a Council can bestow upon a volunteer and is among the most prestigious awards in Scouting.

The Silver Beaver Award was introduced in 1931 as a means for Council-level recognition of Scouters who provided distinguished service to youth.

The Silver Beaver is not an “earned” award; rather the recognition is granted by one’s own peers in Scouting for distinguished service to youth.

A Council committee selects the recipients after a thorough review of nominations received from throughout the Council. The National Council, upon the recommendation of the local Council, makes the award.

Length of service is not a prerequisite; nor does the fact that someone is long-tenured make the recognition automatic.

A recipient of the award may be a Scouter who has given exceptional service to Scouting or his/her community over a long period of time, or it may go to a Scouter who has done a single remarkable act of noteworthy service.

The award may also be presented to Scouters who provide exceptional service to youth outside of Scouting.

DAVE BUSSIÈRE 2019 SILVER BEAVER RECIPIENT

Dave Bussiere is Committee Chair for Family Pack 374, Committee Member in Scouts BSA Troop 374, and Princess Anne District Vice Chair for Membership. Dave re-joined Scouting in 1997 as a Tiger Partner with his son Ryan. He has been a registered member ever since and has served various roles throughout the years, with his current positions and PAVAB Popcorn Kernel being his favorites.

His point of pride in Scouting is his successful effort to introduce Family Scouting into Tidewater Council and to further inclusion and equality within the Scouting programs. He derives great joy in mentoring and encouraging the young leaders that will move Scouting forward.

Dave is married to Anne Bussiere, also a longtime Scouter. He says, until recently, he was only known as “Anne’s husband.” They have three wonderful children that have all reached the pinnacle of their Scouting programs — Ryan and Sean are Eagle Scouts; Laura is a Venturing Silver Awardee. All have attended National Jamborees. This year, Sean and Laura will be ambassadors at the 24th World Jamboree.

During his time in Scouting, Dave has earned his Wood Badge beads (Eagles fly!), District Award of Merit, Scouter’s Training Award, Community Organization Award, Cub Scouter Award, Tiger Den Leader Award, and the Arrow of Light Award.

Dave is a graduate of St. Leo University and holds a degree in Technology Management. He served 25 years in the Navy and currently works for Booz Allen Hamilton as a Project Management Specialist supporting the Norfolk Naval Shipyard CIO.

JON MCGLOTHIAN 2019 SILVER BEAVER RECIPIENT

Jon McGlothian grew up in Scouting where his father served as a Cubmaster and his mother as a Den Mother. He earned his Eagle Scout with Bronze Palm and was a member of the Order of the Arrow. As a youth, he worked with the Middle Tennessee Council with establishing new units. His son, Jonathan, recently earned his Eagle Scout Award.

Jon has served as Assistant Cubmaster and Cubmaster (Pack 504), Assistant Scoutmaster (Troop 471), and Vice Chair and District Chair for Princess Anne District. He completed Wood Badge and has served on the Wood Badge staff.

He is currently on the Council Executive Board for the Tidewater Council. His work includes the Nominating Committee, spearheading the Council’s Diversity effort, and being on the Membership Super-Committee. His awards include the Cubmaster Knot and the Princess Anne District Award of Merit.

Following graduation from West Point, Jon completed his service with 3rd Ranger Battalion. He earned the Combat Infantryman Badge and the Bronze Star for meritorious actions while serving his country.

Active in the community, he has served on the University of Memphis’ Fogelman College of Business & Economics Board of Directors, Victims to Victory Board of Directors and is an active member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. He also serves as a mentor for ENACTUS, an organization dedicated to entrepreneurial action for others. His community awards include “Young Alumni of the Year” for outstanding contributions to the University of Memphis and community, as well as Jack and Jill Norfolk Chapter “Father of the Year.”

Jon and Tracy McGlothian have been married for more than 29 years and have two wonderful children.

MICHAEL QUALLS 2019 SILVER BEAVER RECIPIENT

Michael Qualls has been active in Scouting since the age of 7 when he joined Cub Scouts. He earned his Arrow of Light award in 1997. In 2004, he achieved the rank of Eagle Scout with Troop 259 in Chesapeake, where he currently serves as an Assistant Scoutmaster.

He attended Wood Badge in 2011, and has staffed several Boy Scout adult leaders training courses such as Introduction to Outdoor Leadership Skills and many at University of Scouting.

Michael has been active on the District level since 2009 with both the former Merrimac District and the Three Rivers District. With the help of other leaders, he was responsible for restarting the Spring and Fall Camporee program for the Merrimac District. He also was instrumental in developing the program for the first Merrimac District Merit Badge University, an event that has continued annually since its inception.

He has been active in supporting other District events such as District Dinners, Pinewood Derbies, Webelos-ees, and Day Camp. Michael has served the Three Rivers District as the Activities and Civic Service Chair, Finance Chair, and Vice Chair. He currently serves as the District Chair and has for the past two and a half years. The Merrimac District awarded him the District Award of Merit in 2009.

Michael is a Vigil Honor member of the Order of the Arrow. He has served Blue Heron Lodge in the past as the Merrimac Chapter Advisor, has advised Lodge Service weekends, served on Conclave staff, and is currently the Lodge Finance Advisor.

Michael has served the Council's camp, Pipsico Scout Reservation, as a member of Summer Camp Staff, a member of the Council Camping Committee, and as a trained Campmaster.

KELLY THORP 2019 SILVER BEAVER RECIPIENT

Kelly Thorp volunteered with Tidewater Council BSA when his son joined Scouts in Troop 364. He has served as the Bayside District Commissioner, Troop 364 Committee Member, Crew 364 Advisor and is currently serving as Ship 42 Skipper, Scouts BSA Troop 67 Assistant Scoutmaster and Crew 462 Associate Advisor.

Additionally, Kelly has served in numerous other council and regional assignments. He attended Wood Badge in 2012 and subsequently served on staff in 2016. After serving on National Youth Leadership Training (NYLT) staff four times, Kelly became the 2018 NYLT Scoutmaster. He organized, planned and conducted the first-ever Powder Horn Course in Tidewater Council. He serves as a National Camp School Trek Leader Instructor for the Southern Region.

Kelly is a District Award of Merit recipient and was selected to serve on the Tidewater Council Executive Board in 2018.

Kelly's focus, in and out of Scouting, is providing opportunities for youth to experience the outdoors. He is an experienced and avid canoeist and has led multiple weeklong 100-mile-plus canoe camping treks in Maine and Virginia.

In 2017 Kelly and his wife started Virginia Outdoor Adventure (a non-profit organization) to promote high adventure outdoor opportunities for youth in Virginia. Virginia Outdoor Adventure is the chartered organization for Sea Scout Ship 42, which is the platform for expanding Sea Scout and sailing programs in Tidewater Council.

JAMES E. WEST FELLOWSHIPS

James E. West (1876-1948) was the first Chief Scout Executive. He agreed to take the job for up to six months and stayed on, serving youth for 32 years.

A gift to our local council, designated by the donor to the council endowment fund, qualifies for membership as a James E. West fellow. The gift must be in addition to — and not replace or diminish — the donor's annual Friends of Scouting support. A minimum gift of $1,000 in cash or marketable securities qualifies for the Bronze level membership.

Donors may make cumulative gifts to reach Silver, Gold, and Diamond member levels. For example, five years of giving at the Bronze level would qualify for Silver level membership. Many individuals and corporations make these gifts either on behalf of someone else — such as in honor of an Eagle Scout, Silver Beaver recipient, a retirement, a special accomplishment, or anniversary — or in memory of a special individual.
