

BE A LEADER IN SAFEGUARDING

Live the Oath. Follow the Law. Safeguard Each Other.

STOP • THINK • CHOOSE

STOP: Pause. Hands to myself.

THINK: Is this Scout-like? Does it respect boundaries?

CHOOSE: Stay with my buddy or group.

Be where leaders can see me.
Get help early.

FEELINGS & BOUNDARIES

Strong feelings and attraction are normal.

What matters is how I act on them.
Sexual activity is not allowed in Scouting.

Scouting is for friendship, teamwork, learning, and adventure.
Exclusive or dating-type behavior does not belong here.

LIVE THE SCOUT LAW

No bullying.

No hazing or initiations.

No pressuring others.

Respect personal space and privacy.

If it wouldn't pass the Scout Law, it doesn't belong.

WHAT YOU DO ON DEVICES MATTERS

Screens don't change expectations.

Don't record where privacy is expected.

Don't share what could harm or embarrass someone.

If it's not OK in person, it's not OK online.

BE AN UPSTANDER

Interrupt or redirect unsafe behavior.

Stay with the Scout who needs support.

Get an adult leader right away.

WHEN TO GET HELP

Tell an adult leader if something feels unsafe.

If there is immediate danger, call 911.

S.A.F.E.

SUPERVISION: Stay with your buddy and group.

ASSESSMENT: Speak up if something feels unsafe.

FITNESS & SKILL: Know limits.

Don't pressure or be pressured.

EQUIPMENT & ENVIRONMENT:

Respect privacy.
